PUPPY FARM HELL

'INDUSTRIAL SCALE': The RSPCA rescued 76 dogs

barking@yellowad.co.uk

TWO women have been given suspended prison sentences after 76 dogs were rescued from "horrendous conditions" at a puppy farm from "hell".

Victoria Montgomery, 56, of Melford Avenue, Barking, and Teresa Wade, 58, of Ship Lane, Aveley, Essex, pleaded guilty to multiple animal welfare offences at

Dogs kept in 'horrendous' conditions

Southend Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, February 20.

The duo admitted keeping dogs and puppies in dirty, unsuitable conditions following an investigation – called Operation Excel – into puppy farming by the RSPCA.

The RSPCA launched the investigation in 2014 after receiving calls from concerned members of the public who had bought puppies that had become extremely sick or, in some cases had died.

The RSPCA and police executed a warrant at the farm in Ship Lane, Aveley, on September 17, 2014.

Officers found 76 dogs and puppies, including poodles, cocker spaniels and some of the popular designer cross-breed types such as cavachons, cockerpoos and golden doodles.

The dogs were seized and placed into the RSPCA's care and a number of pregnant bitches went on to have 27 puppies in the charity's centres.

Of the 103 dogs in total, four sadly died. Courts ordered the remaining 99 dogs to be re-homed.

RSPCA inspector Carroll Lampert, who led the investigation, said: "The dogs were being bred on an industrial scale and were kept in disgusting conditions in makeshift kennels and pens in outbuildings.

"When it was time to sell the puppies, for hundreds of pounds each, they would be moved to two houses being used as front addresses to sell the puppies from. The staged houses gave the impression that the dogs were much-loved family pets. The reality was far from that.

"These dogs were kept in dark, damp pens covered in filth. They were in terrible conditions, riddled with worms and fleas, with matted, dirty coats.

"Many of them were extremely poorly with campylobacter and giardia – both serious and potentially deadly parasitic illnesses."

The RSPCA determined that while many of the dogs were being bred on-site, a number of puppies were also being imported from abroad.

Insp Lampert said: "These dogs were being kept in horrendous conditions, it must have been hell for them.

"Sadly, we lost a few of the pups but, thanks to the wonderful dedication of our animal centre staff and fosterers, the rest have all flourished and are now happy, healthy dogs in loving homes.

"Many of them still carry the scars – both mental and physical – though. Some have ongoing health problems caused by the conditions they were kept in while others have developed behavioural issues."

Tributes as former YA reporter Pat dies

TRIBUTES have been paid to former Yellow Advertiser reporter Pat Higgins, who died on Wednesday February 14 after a brief spell in hospital.

Pat, the wife of former YA editor Phil Higgins, started freelancing at the YA in the late 1990s before joining as a full-time staff member.

She had become a journalist later in life after leaving her former career as a solicitor in local Government. In addition to working as a reporter, Pat also did a stint as Mother of the Chapel for the YA's chapter of the National Union of Journalists.

Former Basildon Council leader Tony Ball paid tribute to her, saying: "I met Pat once a week at one time for a regular briefing. She obviously asked a lot of searching questions but I found her to be a nice lady; very pleasant to talk to and deal with."

In 2011, by then in her 70s and unable to walk without a stick, she insisted on covering the controversial Dale Farm eviction in person, embedding herself with travellers at the site.

A year later Pat began working part-time while she cared for her husband Phil, who was battling cancer.

Cllr Ball said: "I knew her when she was caring for her husband, which put a strain on her, but she seemed to take it stoically."

Phil sadly died in February 2013. Tragically, two days later, their son also died from a suspected heart attack. Pat had to organise a joint funeral.

INSET: Our Pat and (main pic) at Dale Farm in 2011 with Vanessa Redgrave

By this time Pat had moved onto the Castle Point and Southend patch.

Long-time Canvey Island councillor Ray Howard said: "I'm so sad to hear this news and I mean that from the heart. I send my condolences to her family. She was lovely."

"I had a lot to do with her when she was the reporter for Castle Point. She was a professional journalist without doubt, but she was also someone I regarded as a true lady; always very courteous and professional in all the issues that she raised with me."

Pat finally retired in 2016, but tragedy struck again on the very day she left when her daughter, who had been admitted to hospital with a broken leg, died suddenly of a blood clot.

Since her retirement, Pat had been volunteering as a reader for talking newspapers for the blind, but had kept in touch with YA editor Mick Ferris, who said this week: "I had known Pat since my first spell at the YA in the '90s and I was back when Phil and then Frank tragically died within days of each other."

"You don't recover from something like that and I would have many conversations with her over the following months."

"She was particularly close to former features writer Liz Wade, who visited her regularly, and my former assistant Trish North."

"We are devastated here that someone we considered one of our own has gone."

Cllr Howard added: "She's with her family now. May she rest in peace."

Firms recognised for giving young a chance

BARKING and Dagenham Council has launched a partnership to reduce the number of youngsters not in education, employment or training.

Businesses committed to the development of young people through work experience, work-related learning and apprenticeships will be able to apply for the kitemark to signify their commitment with a partnership pledge.

Young people will be involved in assessing businesses who apply for the kitemark, entitled Working For Young People, as part of the pledge process.

Students from Barking and Dagenham College's Technical Skills Academy designed 15 potential kitemark logos. The winner will be chosen by Cllr Evelyn Carpenter, cabinet member for educational attainment and school improvement, with £100 for the winning prize.

Employers working with the council were invited to a launch at the Barking Enterprise Centre on Thursday, February 22.

Cllr Cameron Geddes, cabinet member for economic and social development, said: "This promises to be another big day for the council as we look to reduce the number of young people who are not in education, employment or training. The partnership pledge allows local businesses to be recognised for playing such a big role in providing opportunities for youngsters in the borough. They now have the chance to develop their skills and showcase their talents through work experience, work-related learning and apprenticeships and we will receive crucial feedback on how they are progressing."

Khan in college cash boost

THE MAYOR of London has awarded Barking and Dagenham College £5million to build a cutting edge learning centre for advanced technologies.

The Centre for Advanced Technologies (CAT) project will create an advanced skills training centre, delivering a contemporary Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) curriculum.

The announcement comes as part of Sadiq Khan's £25.7m city-wide push to boost skills training for young Londoners.

Women sentenced for puppy farm hell

"It's clear that this gang didn't have a care in the world for the welfare of these dogs. All they saw when they looked into their dark, sad eyes was a way to make thousands and thousands of pounds."

Montgomery admitted one animal welfare offence and was given a three-month jail term suspended for 11 months, and was also ordered to pay £500 costs and a £115 victim surcharge.

Wade pleaded guilty to three animal welfare offences. She was disqualified from keeping dogs for 10 years and given a five-month prison term suspended for 11 months. She was also ordered to pay £500 in costs and a £115 victim surcharge.

Trader sold booze to underage teens

A SHOPKEEPER has been ordered to pay more than £3,000 for selling alcohol to underage teenagers.

Dikesh Gohil, who runs the Nisalocal Store in Lodge Avenue, Dagenham, was caught selling alcohol to minors twice in less than a year by Trading Standards.

In October 2016 a test purchase operation caught the store selling a bottle of Kronenberg beer to a 14-year-old volunteer.

A warning letter was sent to Gohil with the proviso that he signed up to a free Responsible Retailer Scheme to assist the business with preventing the sale of age-restricted products, but he did not comply.

A second test purchase operation was staged in July 2017.

A 16-year-old volunteer purchased a bottle of WKD Blue Original and the sale was seen by a member of the Trading Standards team. No questions were asked regarding the volunteer's age or identification.

Gohil admitted five offences under the Licensing

Act 2003 at Barking Magistrates' Court on Friday, February 16.

These included underage sale of alcohol, and breach of premise licence conditions for failure to operate age verification policy and to maintain training and records.

The court ruled he should pay £1,015 for the five offences with an £80 victim surcharge and £2,000 in damages to the London Borough of Barking and Dagenham.

Gohil has to pay the £3,095 on or before March 19.

Cllr Laila Butt, cabinet member for enforcement and community safety, said: "We welcome and encourage businesses in our borough, but they must play by the rules."

"Selling alcohol to underage youngsters is against the law and this is another strong message that we will clamp down hard on anyone who continues to break the rules."

Murder charge

A MAN has been charged with murder after a woman was found dead at an address in Ilford.

Muhammad Javed, 58, of Staines Road, Ilford, was charged on Wednesday, February 14. He has been remanded in custody to appear for trial at the Old Bailey on May 7.

Police attended Staines Road, Ilford, at 6pm on Tuesday, February 13.

Officers gained entry and found Saeeda Hussain, 54, unresponsive, having suffered serious head injuries.

She was pronounced dead at the scene.

EQUALISER: Rochdale substitute Stephen Davies scores a late goal to seal a replay at Wembley

Football

Rochdale 2-2 Tottenham Hotspur Brian Jeeves reporting from the Crown Oil Arena

TOTTENHAM Hotspur face another Emirates FA Cup replay after Rochdale substitute Stephen Davies fired a dramatic stoppage-time equaliser in a hugely entertaining fifth-round tie.

Much of the pre-match talk had circled around the home side's much-maligned playing surface, which had been the centre of a number of recent postponements, as well as receiving a fair amount of criticism following Rochdale's fourth-round replay success over Millwall.

Nevertheless, the ground staff at the Crown Oil Arena had worked around the clock to re-lay the pitch.

Speaking before the match, Dale boss Keith Hill, said: "To get to the fifth round for only the third time in the club's history is already an achievement but we're planning on trying to win against Tottenham."

"It's highly unlikely but we have to plan to be successful."

It had been a hugely contrasting eight days for Spurs, who arrived in the foothills of the South Pennines off the back of a North London derby victory over Arsenal, followed by a Champions League draw with Juventus in Turin.

Boss Mauricio Pochettino showed the home side absolute respect by selecting a strong starting 11, including Danny Rose, Toby Alderweireld, Heung-Min Son and latest signing, Luca Moura.

And it was clear that Pochettino wasn't taking any chances, with Harry Kane, Dele Alli and Erik Lamela named amongst the subs.

Typically in this type of contest, early exchanges were frantic, with the League One strugglers scurrying around like their very existence depended upon it.

Indeed, the enthusiastic hosts were giving their illustrious opponents some uneasy moments, with Andrew Cannon and skipper, Ian Henderson, proving to be problematic to the Spurs rearguard during the opening minutes.

Meanwhile, Son's stinging angled effort was blocked as the visitors displayed a threat of their own.

Rochdale survived a mighty scare when keeper Josh Lillis did well to thwart the progress of Son before Fernando Llorente sent the loose ball the wrong side of an upright.

Spurs were now offering the greater threat, Moussa Sissoko was a whisker away from a telling touch following a flowing move involving livewire Son, while Moura was wayward as the tide continued to turn.

As the game continued, Henderson passed up a decent opportunity to set up a possible shock, fluffing his lines after finding some room behind the stretched Spurs backline. But shortly before the break they made the breakthrough.

Henderson met Andrew Cannon's low centre with a crisp left-footed strike, beating Spurs keeper Michel Vorm.

Spurs were in a hole. However, on the hour mark, Moura provided a neat finish to restore parity, much to the relief of the 2,000 travelling fans, who had until that moment witnessed Rochdale contain their array of stars with alarming ease.

Victor Wanyama should have handed Spurs the lead, but somehow managed to lift over from little over two yards, while Dale keeper, Lillis, fisted clear Trippier's fierce free-kick as pressure continued to grow.

Pochettino threw on Alli and Kane in a bid to finish the contest, and the move almost paid dividends when the former teed up Lamela, whose deflected effort was nodded off the line by Oliver Rathbone.

But with time running out Alli was felled by Harrison McGahey, and Kane scored from the spot.

But that wasn't to be the end of the drama. Sub Davies turned on the proverbial sixpence to fire home, writing his name into Dale folklore and setting up a thoroughly deserved Wembley replay.

"After Harry scored we all believed the tie was won," Pochettino said after the game.

This will be the second time Spurs have faced a replay against lower league opposition, after League Two Newport County forced the North Londoners into a second tie in the previous round.

Meanwhile, Rochdale boss Hill was delighted and hugely proud of his League One side's achievement, adding: "I think it was a reward. I think it was always deserved, at least the opportunity to go to Wembley in a replay."

Spurs now turn their attention back to the Premier League and face Crystal Palace at Selhurst Park on Sunday, February 26 (12pm).

Rochdale: Josh Lillis, Joseph Rafferty (Oliver Rathbone 80'), Jimmy McNulty (Bradden Inman 89'), Harrison McGahey, Stephen Humphrys (Stephen Davies 75'), Callum Camps, Matthew Done, Ryan Delany, Andrew Cannon, Mark Kitching, Ian Henderson (capt) Subs not used: Kgosi Ntshi, Joseph Thompson, Brendan Moore, Daniel Adshead

Tottenham Hotspur: Michel Vorm (capt), Kieran Trippier, Danny Rose, Toby Alderweireld, Heung-Min Son, Victor Wanyama, Moussa Sissoko, Fernando Llorente (Harry Kane 77'), Juan Foyth, Lucas Moura (Dele Alli 71'), Harry Winks (Erik Lamela 62') Subs not used: Davinson Sanchez, Eric Dier, Paulo Gazzaniga, Kyle Walker-Peters

Non-league round-up

O's and Daggers win on travels

By Brian Jeeves

LEYTON Orient and Dagenham & Redbridge both picked up important National League victories on their travels, with AFC Fylde and Torquay United both suffering at the hands of the East London sides.

Macauley Bonne grabbed the only goal shortly before the break as the O's took all three points against promotion-chasing Fylde at Mill Farm Sports Village. Meanwhile, Fejiri Okenabirhie bagged a brace and Craig Robson added another as the Daggers routed Torquay by three unanswered goals at Plainmoor. Orient move up to 16th in the table, while the Daggers are four points outside the play-off places in 11th.

There was an entertaining National South encounter for a Melbourne Stadium crowd of 973 as Chelmsford City and Hemel Hempstead Town played out a 3-3 draw. Jonathan Giles, Anthony Church and Chris Dickson all found the net for the Claretts - Ismail Yakubu, Scott Shulton and Spencer McCall scoring for the visitors.

Sam Higgins and Montel Agyemang gave East Thurrock United a two-goal advantage at Weston-Super-Mare. But Gethyn Hill and Kristian Scott replied before the break to earn the home side a share of the spoils.

Billy Crook was Braintree Town's goalscorer at Bognor Regis Town, but the Iron slipped to defeat by the odd goal in three. Meanwhile, Concord Rangers were also beaten - the Beach Boys going down by a single goal at Gloucester City.

The big news from the Bostik League Premier Division was Billericay Town slipping to their first defeat since the opening day of the season as hosts, Leiston, recorded a 3-1 success.

Adam Cunningham gave Town an eighth-minute lead, only for Joe Jefford, Darren Mills and Chris Henderson to respond as Town's 25-match unbeaten league run was brought to an end.

It was a frustrating afternoon for Thurrock, who went down 1-0 to Hendon at Ship Lane, and Brightingsea Regent, who despite a Sam Ashford goal, lost 2-1 at Leatherhead.

Canvey Island were 2-1 winners over Maldon & Tiptree at Park Lane in the Bostik North. James Walker and Ryan Charles found the net for the Gulls - Joe Ellul responding for the Jammers.

Adem Ramadan, Abs Seymour and Kemo Darboe were Barking's scorers in a 3-1 win over Bury Town, and there was a 4-1 win for Grays Athletic over Witham Town with Tommy Wade and Kieran Bishop both finding the net twice - Aidara Moulaye with Witham's late consolation.

Kurt Smith and a Jack Carlile penalty was enough for Tilbury to see off Soham Town Rangers 2-0 at Chadfields.

Shad Ngandu hit a hat-trick for Waltham Abbey in their 3-1 win over Romford at Capershotts - Andrew Tiranhu with the visitors' reply. Luke Callander (penalty), Ryan Henshaw and Harrison Chatting helped Heybridge Swifts to a 3-1 win over Brentwood Town - Luke Foster replying late on for Brentwood.

There was a shock in store for the top two who both suffered surprising defeats. Joe Wright scored for AFC Sudbury from the spot as AFC Hornchurch were beaten 1-0, while Bowers & Pitsea went down 2-1 at Cheshunt. David Knight with the Bowers goal.

In the Essex Senior League, leaders Redbridge were held 1-1 by Great Wakering Rovers at Burroughs Park. Elsewhere, there were 1-1 results at the Cricklefield Stadium, between Barkingside and Southend Manor, as well as at Crofters, where Sawbridgeworth Town and Ilford shared the spoils.

Takeley won by a single goal against Clapton at the Old Spotted Dog ground, while Hullbridge Sports saw off Tower Hamlets 2-1 at Lower Road. Wadham Lodge won an entertaining derby with Waltham Forest, 4-2. Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Kelvedon Hatch win their Premier Division clash with White Ensign 2-1. Old Southendian thrashed Shenfield AFC 5-1 at Garon Park in Division One, while a high scoring encounter in Division Two saw Rochford Town beat Ryan FC 8-3.

Demetriou double keeps Blues riding high

Southend United 3-1 Portsmouth
Sky Bet League One
By Rowland Lyons at Roots Hall
CHRIS Powell's purple patch continues after his Shrimpers side trounced ten-man Pompey on Saturday.

Since taking over barely three weeks ago, Southend have gleaned 13 points from five games.

On a sunny afternoon Jason Demetriou bagged a double, after a Matt Clarke own-goal early doors.

The visitors, with only a solitary win in 2018, saw Conor Chaplin waste a "goalden" chance after just two minutes, slotting wide, under pressure from Anton Ferdinand.

Southend made Pompey pay four minutes later as Shayon Harrison forced an error from Christian Burgess, and the ball spun over a stranded Luke McGhee.

With only 12 minutes gone, Burgess was again at fault after losing possession from a Michael Timlin long ball. From Ben Coker's throw-in, Simon Cox was allowed too much time and space for Stephen McLaughlin to tee-up Demetriou, who picked his spot, beating McGhee through a sea of bodies.

The rampant Blues should have put the game out if reach two minutes later. Cox set up Yearwood - celebrating his 18th birthday - who curled an effort wide.

With Southend soaking up pressure, Cox had a go on 27 minutes and the nervous McGhee almost spilled the drive into his own goal

Clearly happier with the bumpy playing surface, Southend were content to sit on their lead, but took their foot off the gas, on 37 minutes, when Timlin allowed Jamal Lowe to cross for Evans to bundle home, despite Michael Turner and Demetriou having chances to clear.

The chances continued to arrive for both sides. Turner did well to deny Chaplin a leveller on 44 minutes, before, two minutes into stoppage time Freddie Ladapo completely missed the target, with a free header, from a McLaughlin cross.

Pompey were quick out of the traps after the break and Chaplin went close with a half-volley, before dangerman Lowe flashed an effort across the face of Mark Oxley's goal.

Pompey went down to ten men soon after when Thompson went over the top of the ball and caught Coker with a crude challenge.

Against the run of play on 84 minutes man of the match, Demetriou netted his eighth of the season, running on to Yearwood's pass.

A philosophical Powell admitted: "We didn't play well, but it has been a long week. Getting back from Bury at 4-30am didn't help, but I can't complain as it seems like the players are listening to me."

Powell concluded: "We take each game on its merits. I'm only thinking about Oldham next Saturday (kick-off 3pm)."

Southend United: Mark Oxley, Jason Demetriou (Elvis Bwomono 90'), Michael Turner, Anton Ferdinand, Ben Coker (capt), Dru Yearwood, Michael Timlin, Stephen McLaughlin, Shayon Harrison, Simon Cox (Josh Wright 87'), Freddie Ladapo (Marc Antoine-Fortune 73'). Subs (not used): Nathan Bishop, Jermaine McGlashan, Harry Kyprianou, Theo Robinson.

Portsmouth: Luke McGhee, Anton Walkes, Christian Burgess, Matt Clarke, Dion Donohue, Gareth Evans (Conor Ronan 37'), Nathan Thompson (red card 64'), Ben Close, Jamal Lowe, Brett Pitman (capt) (Oliver Hawkins 66'), Conor Chaplin. Subs (not used): Alex Bass, Kal Naismith, Sylvain Deslandes, Adam May, Brandon Haunstraup.
